Coton Green Primary School

We've had another very busy week in school this week and it has been so good to see so much excellent work going on in all our classes across school. Next week will prove to be even busier!

We are looking forward to seeing you next week for our 'meet the teacher' parent consultations. Please use your child's normal class entrance. However, if the weather is bad please make your way to the main office so you can access the classes from the hall.

We have also received confirmation of our Multi-Use Games Area being started on 3/10/22 with a completion date of early November.

This will inevitably cause some inconvenience, but the short-term pain will be worth it to have such a wonderful resource. At the moment, there should be no change to drop off and pick up points, but should this change, we will let you know.

Have a wonderful weekend everyone.

Mr R Osborne

Reading for Pleasure at Coton Green

The benefits of reading for pleasure are pretty much indisputable. So, we are launching our new reading for pleasure incentive this weekend. Your child (Year 1 - 6) will be invited to play Reading Bingo (between 1st October and 15th December) and will bring a Reading Bingo Card home today. Instructions are provided.

In addition, we have managed to secure a copy of Marcus Rashford's book for each child in Key Stage Two. (Thanks to Glascote Children's Centre and Lidl). We hope that this will spark even more enthusiasm in reading for pleasure.

Happy reading!
