Coton Green Primary School

A big thank you to the PTFA for arranging the school disco this week. It was lovely to see so many children attend the first disco in 3years and their behaviour was fantastic.

It was also wonderful to see all the children celebrating World Book Day on Thursday all dressed in their Pyjamas.

We are now launching The Great Coton Green Reading Challenge and are looking forward to watching you all building your reading miles as you travel.

Thank you all for your continued support

Reading news:

Many thanks to everyone who entered the World Book Day Toilet Roll Challenge. We had a fantastic amount of entries and all were really imaginative! Have a look on Twitter for some of the entries @GreenCoton.

Choosing winners was difficult but a special congratulations should go to these children, our phase winners:

EYFS	Y1/2	Y3/4	Y5/6
Megan A	Tilly C	Harley F	Abi C
Michael J	Fran W	Henry A	Archie G
	Asa H	Siena Y	Felicity D
	Caleb B

Also, a reminder that World Book Day Tokens can be redeemed until Sunday 26th March. Please see Mrs Tanner if yours has been misplaced. We do have some spares.

This week sees the launch of our GREAT BRITISH RAILWAY challenge. Your child should have received a letter, Railcard and their first journey yesterday. The aim of the challenge is to promote reading at home. Certificates are awarded for each journey completed. Any child who completes all the journeys will receive a small prize.

The library continues to be open for parents and carers and their children every Friday morning from 8.30am. Thank you to all those who have been sharing books and borrowing books during this session.

Happy Reading!

Mrs Tanner

BE SMART ONLINE

SAFE

Keep your personal information safe. When chatting or posting online don't give away things like your full name, password or home address. Remember personal information can be seen in images and videos you share too. Keep them safe to keep yourself safe.

M

MEET

Meeting up with someone you only know online, even a friend of a friend, can be dangerous as this person is still a stranger. If someone you only know online ever asks you to meet up, for personal information or for photos/videos of you then tell an adult straight away and report them together on www.thinkuknow.co.uk

ACCEPTING

Think carefully before you click on or open something online (e.g. links, adverts, friend requests, photos) as you never know where they may lead to or they may contain viruses. Do not accept something if you are unsure of who the person is or what they've sent you.

R

RELIABLE

You cannot trust everything you see online as some things can be out of date, inaccurate or not entirely true. To find reliable information compare at least three different websites, check in books and talk to someone about what you have found.

TELL

Tell a trusted adult if something or someone ever makes you feel upset, worried or confused. This could be if you or someone you know is being bullied online. There are lots of people who will be able to help you like your teachers, parents, carers or contact Childline - 0800 11 11 or www.childline.org.uk
